Dear Saieesh,

Thanks for your email. We are happy to you that your university is welcome to upload all your staff/student publications in our association's journals/proceedings into your university's own repository for non-commercial propose. Among these, you are welcome to upload the five papers mentioned in your five emails of the Proceedings of the World Congress on Engineering and Computer Science.

If you have any question, you are welcome to tell us.

Best regards,

William Young
